

Archerfield House

Dirleton, East Lothian, Scotland

Sir John Nisbet

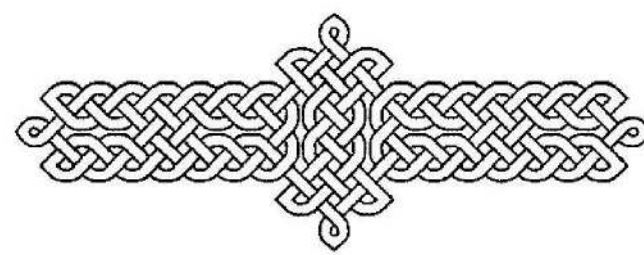

Lord Dirleton

1610-1688

He married Margaret Fletcher,
Helen Hay, a Miss Money penny
& Jean Morrison

John Nisbet was named a Lord of Session on the 1st of November 1636, was knighted by the Marquis of Hamilton, as royal commissioner, on the 14th of November 1638 and was sheriff-depute of the county of Edinburgh in 1639. He was admitted as King Charles the 1st's advocate on the 20th of November 1663, He purchased Dirleton Castle in 1663 and rather than rebuild the ruined Castle he built Archerfield as his home. Apparently none of his children survived as he left Archerfield to his second cousin, Sir William Nisbet, the son of Sir Alexander Nisbet.

Sir William Nisbet

Of Craigintinnie & Dirleton

1666-1724

He married Jean Bennett
& a second Jean Bennett

Sir William Nisbet, Member of Parliament for the County of Haddington in the last Parliament of Scotland and the first of Great Britain.